This includes, but is not limited to, time spent by our team on research, planning, design, development, or any other work related to the project, as well as any materials or components acquired specifically for the Buyer's project. The amount owed will be calculated based on our standard daily and hourly rates, plus the cost of any parts or materials. We appreciate your understanding, as this policy helps us manage our schedule and resources effectively.

PRICE

16. The applicable prices for the Deliverables are as set out in the Contract. All prices are net taxes, VAT, customs duties and other similar levies or costs, unless otherwise provided in the agreed delivery term or in the Contract.

17. The Seller reserves the right, by giving written notice to the Buyer at any time before delivery or provision, to increase the price of the Goods and/or Services to reflect any increase in the cost to the Seller which is due to any factor beyond the control of the Seller (including, without limitation, any foreign exchange fluctuation, currency regulation, alteration of duties, significant increase in the costs of labour, materials or other costs of manufacture), any change in delivery dates, quantities or specifications for the Goods and Services which are requested by the Buyer, or any delay caused by any instructions of the Buyer or failure of the Buyer to give the Seller adequate information or instructions.

PAYMENT

18. The Seller shall invoice the Buyer for the price of the Goods and Services on or at any time after delivery of the Goods and/or the Provision of the Services (as applicable), unless, in the case of Goods, the Goods are to be collected by the Buyer or the Buyer wrongfully fails to take delivery of the Goods, in which event the Seller shall be entitled to invoice the Buyer for the price at any time after the Seller has notified the Buyer that the Goods are ready for collection or (as the case may be) the Seller has tendered delivery of the Goods.

19. The Buyer shall pay invoices within thirty (30) days from the date of invoice. Payment shall be made to the bank account nominated in writing by the seller.

21. If the Buyer fails to pay the due date, the Seller may suspend further performance of its contractual obligations until full payment of all outstanding invoices are made. If the buyer has failed to pay the amount due within 60 days after the due date, the Seller may terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Buyer. Unless it is otherwise agreed in writing between the parties, nothing in the Contract shall be construed as transferring any Intellectual Property in connection with the sale and delivery of the Deliverables.

LIABILITY FOR DEFECTS IN GOODS

26. All delivery dates for Deliverables shall be estimates only and time shall not be of the essence. If the Seller determines that it will not be able to meet agreed delivery dates it shall notify the Buyer thereof in writing, stating the cause of the delay and indicating a revised date

27. Should a delivery or part-delivery of Deliverables be delayed because the Seller has materially breached its obligations in the Contract, the Buyer shall be entitled to cancel the Contract upon giving written notice thereof to the Seller. Such right of cancellation may only be applied by the Seller if the delay arises from the Buyer's material breach of the Contract which, if capable of remedy, the Buyer has failed to rectify within 14 days of written notification from the Seller.

28. If the Buyer does not take delivery of the Goods on the agreed delivery date, the Buyer is liable and shall be charged for all costs, losses and expenses incurred by the Seller including insurance and storage costs until actual delivery takes place. The Seller may also, at its sole discretion, terminate the Contract and/or claim damages for cost, loss and expense suffered in relation thereto.

30. Prototype Parts might include deviations in design materials, workmanship and/or performance in relation to the specifications of the Production Parts for which the Seller assumes no liability in Prototype Parts.

31. The Seller undertakes to deliver Production Parts free from faulty design, materials and workmanship in relation to the specifications of the Production Parts.

32. The Production Parts shall be regarded as defective if not in compliance with clause 29. In case of defective Production Parts the Seller shall remedy the defect by way of (at the Seller's choice) either repairing or replacing the Production Parts at the Seller's own cost or by refunding the purchase price paid to the Seller for such defective Production Parts

33. The Seller shall be under no liability in respect of any defect arising from fair wear and tear, or any willful damage, negligence, subjection to normal conditions, failure to follow the Seller's instructions (whether given orally or in writing), misuse or alteration of the Goods without the Seller's prior approval, or any other act or omission on the part of the Buyer, its employees or agents or any third party.

34. The Seller's liability for defects does not cover defects caused by circumstances, which arise after the risk has passed to the Buyer, nor does it cover normal wear and tear or deterioration. Furthermore, the Seller's liability does not cover defects due to mishandling, misuse or otherwise attributable to the Buyer or third parties.

35. The Seller's liability is limited to defects which appear within a period of three (3) months from the date of delivery of the Goods, unless the Goods is intended to be used within a shorter period of time in which case the liability is limited to defects which appear within the intended period of use. For parts of the Goods, which have been repaired or replaced under clause 30, the Seller shall have the same liability for defects as for the original Goods for a period of three (3) months. For other parts of the Goods, the liability period referred to in the first sentence of this clause shall be extended only by the period during which the Goods could not be used due to a defect for which the Seller is liable. Regardless of the provisions of clauses 31 - 38, the Seller shall have no liability for defects in any part of the Goods or any claim, cost, damage or expense related thereto for more than two (2) years from the original delivery date. In addition, the Seller shall have no liability whatsoever for any defects in any Goods or any claim, cost, damage or expense related thereto (i) if Goods is used outside of its specification and/or usage guidelines, (ii) if Goods in any way or part is used for or in applications for which the Goods is not originally intended, or (iii) the Goods in any other way is used in breach of the Seller's instructions or for any other purpose than the Goods was originally delivered for.

36. After receipt of a written notice under clause 4 for Production Parts, the Seller shall remedy the defect without undue delay. The Seller shall bear the costs as specified in clauses 31- 38. Remedial work shall be carried out at a location of the Seller's choice. If the Buyer gives such notice as referred to in clause 4, and no defect is found for which the Seller is liable, the Seller shall be entitled to compensation for work and costs incurred as a result of the notice.

37. If remedy of the defect in the Goods requires intervention in other equipment than the Goods, the Buyer shall be responsible for any work or costs caused thereby.

38. All packaging, packing and transports in connection with repair or replacement of Goods shall be at the Buyer's risk and expense. The Buyer shall follow the Seller's instructions regarding how the transport shall be carried out.

39. No Goods may be returned to the Seller without the prior agreement in writing of the Seller.

40. The Seller shall have no liability for defects save as expressly set forth in clauses 32- 39.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

41. The Seller shall have no liability for damage to property or physical persons caused by any Deliverable. If a third party lodges a claim for compensation against the Seller or the Buyer for loss or damage referred to in this clause, the other party shall forthwith be notified thereof in writing.

42. It is acknowledged and agreed that the representations and warranties set forth in these General Conditions in relation to the sale and supply of the Deliverables are exclusive and in lieu of all warranties of quality and performance, written, oral or implied, whether in contract tort, negligence, strict liability or otherwise. All other representations or warranties, including but not limited to any future performance warranties and any implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose, are hereby disclaimed.

43. In no event shall the Seller be liable for any consequential or indirect damages, including, but not limited to, costs for third parties (e.g. end customers), loss of profit, loss of goodwill, cost of capital and costs incurred in connection with substitute sources of supply. Furthermore, in no event shall the aggregate liabilities of the Seller exceed the purchase price actually paid by the Buyer to the Seller with respect to the Deliverables in question.

44. The following circumstances shall constitute grounds for relief if they impede the performance of the Contract or makes performance unreasonably onerous and could not reasonably be foreseen: industrial disputes and any other circumstance beyond the control of the parties, such as fire, war, mobilisation or military call up of a comparable scope, requisition, seizure, trade and currency restrictions, insurrection and civil commotion, pandemics, shortage of transport, general shortage of materials, restrictions in the supply of power and defects or delays in deliveries by subcontractors caused by any such circumstance as referred to in this clause.

45. The party wishing to claim relief under clause 45 shall without delay notify the other party in writing on the intervention and on the cessation of such circumstance. If grounds for relief prevent the Buyer from fulfilling its obligations, the Buyer shall reimburse the expenses incurred by the Seller in securing and protecting the Goods.

46. Notwithstanding other provisions of these General Conditions, either party shall be entitled to terminate the Contract by notice in writing to the other party, if performance of the Contract is delayed more than twelve months by reason of any grounds for relief as described in clause 44.

CONFIDENTIALITY

47. All information exchanged or otherwise transferred between the parties during the term of the Contract shall be treated as confidential, not be disclosed to any third parties, subject to clause 48 and only used for the purposes of the Contract.

50. The parties agree that no failure by either Party to enforce the performance of any provision in these General Conditions or under the Contract shall constitute a waiver of the right to subsequently enforce that provision or any other provision. Such failure shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding or subsequent breach and shall not constitute a continuing waiver.

SEVERANCE

51. The parties agree that, in the event that one or more of the provisions of these General Conditions or the Contract are found to be unlawful, invalid or otherwise unenforceable, that / those provisions shall be deemed severed from the remainder of these General Conditions (and, by extension, the Contract). The remainder of these and the Contract shall be valid and enforceable
